Youth Members of Month December 2013 Troy and Tyler Danzy

Troy

Tyler

Troy and Tyler are the sons of Clifton and Carmen Danzy. They are two unique individuals grounded in a Christian home. They were both born in March on the 11th and 12th four years apart.

Christian Missionary Baptist Church

Troy was baptized at Christian Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Robert E. Harper his Pastor. He faithfully serves on the Junior Usher Board.

Troy is currently attending Northern Illinois University at DeKalb, majoring in Criminology with plans to obtain a degree in Forensic Science.

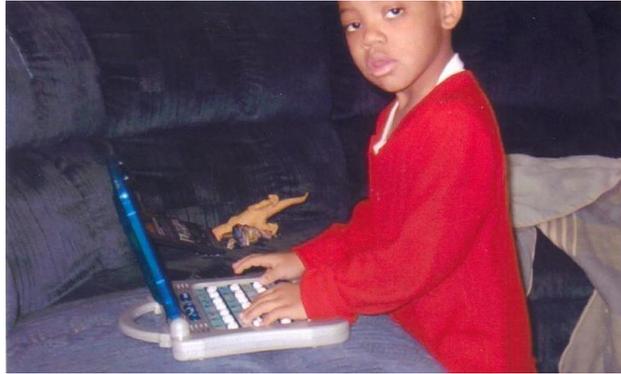

Troy is quiet and unassuming, but has a great passion for technology. Troy is upbeat and mentally focuses on all his studies. Troy's innate ability to write is a generational heirloom. An example is when Troy took the play "Romeo and Juliet" and rearranged it into a poem. Troy received an "A+" and the highest praise from his Literacy teacher.

Troy enjoys extracurricular activities such as: Baseball, basketball, football, music and video games. He likes hanging out with his many friends and cousins.

Troy has received many awards such as baseball and basketball trophies, ribbons, honor roll tags, certificates, Citizenship Awards and City Wide Junior Achievement Awards.

Christian Missionary Baptist Church

Tyler regularly attends Christian Missionary Baptist Church and was baptized by Reverend Robert E. Harper, his Pastor, at the age of 10 in 2010. He faithfully serves on the Junior Usher Board.

Tyler is an eighth grader at Perspective Charter Middle Academy. Tyler is an outgoing person, very outspoken and inquisitive. Tyler likes exploring nature such as digging for worms, garter snakes, crickets, sea shells and any treasure-able item.

He loves reading science books about dinosaurs, constellations, zoology and archaeologist. In addition to reading about science topics he enjoys watching the Discovery, History and Animal Planet Channels. He is quite adept in pronouncing and spelling various reptile names.

Tyler also enjoys baseball, basketball, travel football, biking, fishing and video games. He loves video games and his computer which he started using at the age of two. He likes hanging out with his many friends and cousins.

Christian Missionary Baptist Church

Troy and Tyler continue to stay in church and keep God first. This Christian journey may be difficult, but with Christ on your side both of you will make it.

Mom & Her Boys
Spring 2012

I know somehow, I know some way, we're gonna make it.
No matter what the test, whatever come my way, we're gonna make it.
With Jesus on my side things will turn out right, we're gonna make it.
Somehow, some way we're gonna make it.
